they say in the valley it don't rain a lot i'm standing in a puddle it's all gone to pot
I just shake my head and sigh
I'm just a dark kind of guy

I had some plans they didn't pan out Now I can't remember what they're all about and you may ask yourself why
I'm just a dark kind of guy

Could not be more plain to see the man's got it out for me
all the tarot cards agree
my glass is half empty

~~Could not be more plain to see
the man's got it out for me
forty ticket's numbers scream
I lost the lottery~~

As far as good news I don't have a lot
If I had some of your luck I might have a shot But I'm way too tired to cry
I'm just a dark kind of guy

Have a stout and pout about the glory days I'm getting older, more set in my ways It's clear that life has passed me by
I'm just a dark kind of guy

Could not be more plain to see
the man's got it out for me
all the tarot cards agree
my glass is half empty

Could not be more plain to see
the man's got it out for me
forty ticket's numbers scream
I lost the lottery

city nights and bar fights get you back when I am able shouldn't be a problem now i get paid under the table
