they say in the valley it don't rain a lot i'm standing in a puddle it's all gone to pot and you may ask yourself why I'm just a dark kind of guy

(V1)

I'm laying in a puddle
and you may ask yourself why I'm just a dark kind of guy (V6) chorus

// just for filler you can see - (I'm the) hit of the party // should remember far enough, (as far as) a blind man can see as far as good news I don't have a lot if I had some of your stuff I might have a shot there's no point for me to cry

// counting blackbirds
// when you spend your time looking backwards

// you may think I've got it made // my glory days were second grade life's a sinking boat and i'm trying to survive

if you like long enough wasnt meant for me

take you down

it didnt pan out the kinds of things that i find funny get my kicks screwing other people up ~~wasnt about your little sister~~ hey- how's your little sister doing dead man walking

just

i had some plans but it didnt pan out now i cant remember what they were all about ill just sit here shake my head and sigh
i'm just a dark kind of guy

The man's got me down still ~~trying to~~ stick it to the man so what if my life is in ruin?

we ~~all do the best we can~~ (by the way)

~~how~~ how's your little sister doing?

in the kitchen go to joke about putting something in your drink cheer me up I into heavy lifting i want the to <sup>in</sup> what how my life is ~~totally~~ <sup>completely</sup> in ruin we should totally hang out say - how's your little sister doing?

! don't judge - in piece to label for but most of my ~~works~~ is under the table
! get paid
