

EF.02.01

decidedly blue
every time you go away i get excited for space but the look on my face is decidedly blue

the way the moon tugs the ocean i'm heading due south but the words in my mouth are decidedly blue

and i know the universe's secret song + the pills i take that make it go away
tricks by hands of shapers mechanics of the games that alphas play

All the pieces flew off the board but you're the train to elsewhere

~~impossible~~ we kick around mornings into sleepless nights can't take shit so seriously kills a decent melody maybe im just a minor dude what it takes to make a decent tune im stuck being a minor dude am i fine being a minor dude

{ rise from the water
into the sky

but it's blood and love for decent tunes ~~what~~ mind being a minor dude and im fine

all i want's to make some tunes im fine being a minor dude
