

it might not be becoming but all pride is lost O years ago ive made a life of barking up the wrong tree yeah in a perfect world yeah in a perfect world that's what perfect people do yeah be doing pretty well

STARTED OUT SIMPLE NUFF CUP OF COFFEE HERE AND THERE
NICKEL AND DIME TO PASS THE TIME FOR A GIRL FROM KANSAS FAIR

YOU KNOW HOW THESE THINGS HAPPEN
~~THE~~ A RIBBON TO A BOW
~~SHOW IN THE ROUND - NIGHT ON THE TOWN~~ ~~NEED~~ DRESS AND SHOES IN TOWN

YEAH IN A PERFECT WORLD

YEAH IN A PERFECT WORLD
YOU'D BE DOING PRETTY WELL
IF I HAD TO REM TO THINK OF YOU

~~and~~ ^{yeah} this is the dearest song in the world but i've got one

Am 7 6# 7 6
if i had to pay

you know how these things happen ~~maybe you could take a stone from a ribbon to a bow~~ show ~~it~~ in the sand - maybe on the down with a new dress and shoes in a box you're in a perfect world that's what perfect people do... you're doing pretty well.

you'd be doing pretty well in the change piece
if i had to pay to think of you

one day our time ~~you're not~~ a chateau on the shore perhaps you'll think of me will you answer the jets of me our a good bank & some wire ~~bank~~

admiring animals in the clouds you know how these things happen shoes down in the sand as you can imagine ~~it~~ from your private jet the gross domestic product of japan

you're in a perfect world to what perfect people do it's the least that i can do you'd be having in the wallet
if i had to pay to think of you
