HEY BABY

hey baby -

where've you gone
sometimes i think about you in rains like these

hey baby -

what've you done
hard to believe it's true?
our course has run?

i think you know what i'm thinking of
did you have to prove your secrets were stronger than love?

you always ~~wanted~~ asked what in the hell was the ~~big~~ surprise

well get an car to take you to work and pink dress that make your aunt's eyes grow wide

Stranger than love

when i see you
i think about you when i'm driving through rains like these

you walked out the door when you found your father's blue coat didn't fit me anymore

did you have to prove your secrets were stranger than love?

you think that maybe...

~~be~~ near mind.

i want you to know that i'm totally fine

windshield wipers fucked out of time

~~i think i know what you're thinking of did i have to prove my hubris was outweighed by regime?~~

i think you know what i'm thinking of...
your hubris was stronger than your love...

for me - things have ~~never~~ been better... i swear for me - i've just been ~~being~~ bussing up the stations do i give my suburban ass away when i show my disdain for public transportation?

i think you know what i'm doing of but did you have to prove ~~your~~ your secrets were stronger than love?
