

Used to know

12.3

why marry a poor girl when you can marry rich - but dad - i love a poor girl - oh - when the lions and the winds sleep i might just do things differently, oh i don't know i can't afford to why am i selling promises ~~that~~ i ~~cannot~~ keep. — maybe we'll sleep where did all together through the rain the answers go?

i used to know - long ago

why am i finding problems in the spots i used to flow where did all my courage go?

these days are dangerous, though s' nothing compared to the underworld
